In May 1954 the southern quay in the President's Basin, Gdynia, was repaired and placed at the disposal of the navy. This quay is separated by a barbed wire fence from the other quays. The navy did not previously have a separate quay in the Commercial Port.

Comment. The naval quay, which was previously called the President's Quay (Nabrzeze Prezydenta) is the one closest to Skwer Kosciuszki where the naval headquarters are located.
